

LOOMISCHAFFEE

Loomis Chaffee is a four-year college preparatory school located in the Connecticut River Valley, just north of Hartford. The 690 students come from all regions of the United States and from many foreign countries. Nearly 33 percent of the students receive financial assistance. Admission is very selective. The rigorous program of study should be undertaken only by able students with strong academic motivation as the curriculum is intended to prepare students for further study in selective college and university programs.

THE COMMON RECOMMENDATION FORM

TO THE SCHOOL OFFICIAL: In an effort to simplify the application process and eliminate unnecessary duplication of effort, many independent schools have collaborated in the development of common recommendation forms. This form may be completed only once; photocopies will be accepted by all schools that accept the common recommendation forms. The student should provide you with a stamped, addressed return envelope for each school requesting a copy of this form. Use of the common recommendation forms will in no way compromise the student's chances for admission. You are welcome to attach a narrative statement, but if you do so, we request that you complete the checkboxes on this form as well.

Mail a copy of this form to Loomis Chaffee, postmarked by January 15, 2010, or return in a sealed envelope to the student to be included with his/her application.
